

NSU AMERICAN INDIAN GRADUATION
STOLE ORDER FORM
 NSU Center for Tribal Studies, 600 N Grand Avenue, Tahlequah, OK 74464

LEGACY of
 AMERICAN INDIAN EDUCATION

Yes, I will be attending the Convocation on April 26th. Number of Guests: _____

Graduates may submit 1-2 pictures of themselves and/family members for inclusion in a slide show via email at tribalstudies@nsuok.edu.

Name: _____

Degree: Bachelors Masters Doctorate

Tribal Affiliation: _____

Hometown: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Major: _____

If you're not attending the convocation, please check for campus delivery: TQ MUSK BA

PAYMENT: Make checks payable to NSU and remit to the NSU Center for Tribal Studies ($20). For questions, contact us at 918.444.4350 or tribalstudies@nsuok.edu.

By Mail: 600 North Grand Avenue, Tahlequah, OK 74464

In Person: Bacone House, 320 Academy Street, Tahlequah, OK 74464

Stoles will be presented at the American Indian Convocation on Thursday, April 26th at 3:00 pm in the Community Room at the Event Center.

Applications must be received with payment by April 6th for inclusion in the program.

CAMPUS DELIVERY: If you will not be attending the convocation, you can pick up your stole at the Center for Tribal Studies (Bacone House) on the Tahlequah campus or the Dean's office in Muskogee and Broken Arrow during the week of April 30 – May 4, 2018.

NSU confers more Bachelor degrees to American Indians than any other public institution in the nation. These stoles are designed to recognize the accomplishments of our American Indian students as well as recognize NSU's American Indian heritage.