*Please note that score report dates for CBT administrations typically fall during the late or emergency registration period for the next paper-based test administration (see "Test Dates for Paper-Based Testing" for registration deadlines). Late and emergency registration fees will not be waived for examinees who take a test on computer and then after receiving their CBT score report choose to register to retake the same test at the next paper-based administration. Also, examinees who register for a paper-based test administration before receiving their scores and later learn that they passed the same test on computer will not receive refunds for any testing fees paid.
