

2021-2022 Verification Worksheet – Independent V5

Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for a process called verification. Federal regulations require that we check the accuracy of the information provided on the 2021-2022 FAFSA. Final eligibility for financial aid cannot be determined until the requested documentation is received and reviewed.

_____	_____	N_____	(____)_____
Last Name	First Name	Student ID #	Phone

List below the people in your household:

Write the names, age, and relationship to student of all household members in the space(s) below. Also, write in the name of the college attending for any household member who will be attending at least half time between July 1, 2021 and June 30, 2022, and will be enrolled in a degree, diploma, or certificate program. If you need more space, attach a separate page and include the students name and ID number at the top.

Section A. Household Information

<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

- ✓ Each parent is required to submit a letter of non-tax filing status from the IRS (dependent students are not required to submit proof of non-filing). You can obtain this letter by submitting IRS form 4506-T (Check Box 7) to the IRS. Form 4506-T can be found at www.irs.gov. The IRS will then forward a letter to you and our office will require a copy of that letter along with these completed verification documents.
- ✓ Parents can also receive verification of non-filing by requesting a copy of the tax transcript at www.irs.gov. If a transcript is not found, a statement saying you did not file taxes will display on the screen. Print the statement and provide a copy to our office.
- ✓ Please provide a copy of your W-2(s). If you do not have a copy, you may request your wage and income transcript from www.irs.gov

Section C. High School Completion Status

Provide one of the following documents that indicate the student's high school completion status when the student will begin college during the 2021-2022 academic year:

- A copy of the student's high school diploma.
- A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of the student's General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for home-school (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for home-school (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a home-school setting.

If the student is unable to obtain the documentation listed above, he or she must contact the financial aid office.

Section D. Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose

The student must appear in person at Northeastern State University (Financial Aid Department) to verify his or her identity by presenting a valid government-issued photo identification (ID), such as, but not limited to, a driver's license, other state-issued ID, or passport. The institution will maintain a copy of the student's photo ID that is annotated with the date it was received and the name of the official at the institution authorized to collect the student's ID.

In addition, the student must sign, in the presence of a NSU Financial Aid Representative, the following:

Statement of Educational Purpose
